Occupational Therapy

Career of the week

What is occupational therapy?

- Occupational therapy involves working with people to overcome difficulties, which may be the result of physical or mental illness, an accident or ageing.
- They work with clients to help them lead full and independent lives and, where possible, prevent disability.

How do I become an occupational therapist?

- FET PLC: Assistant Occupational Therapist/ Occupational Therapy Studies Level 5
- CAO Entry: Health science with occupational therapy studies, Occupational Therapy Level 6-8

 Postgraduate study: MSc Occupational Therapy (Professional Qualification), Occupational Therapy -Research, Occupational Therapy -Structured at NFQ levels 9-10

Occupational Therapy University of Galway GY502

- Entry Requirements
- Minimum Subjects 2 H5 & 4 O6/H7
 Minimum subject requirements
- O6/H7 in English
- 06/H7 in Irish
- O6/H7in Any Other Language
- O6/H7 in Maths
- O6/H7 in one of Agricultural Science,
 Biology , Chemistry, Physics, Phys/Chem

Occupational Therapy Trinity College TR054

Entry requirements

Minimum Subjects3 H5 & 3 O6/H7

- Garda Vetting
- O6/H7 in English
- O6/H7 in Any Other Language
- F6 in Maths
- H4 in one of Agricultural Science, Biology, Physics, Chemistry, or Phys/Chem

Occupational Therapy University College Cork CK704

- Entry Requirements
- Minimum Subjects2 H5 & 4 O6/H7
- Garda Vetting
- O6/H7 in English
- 06/H7 in Irish
- O6/H7 in Any Other Language
- 06/H7 in Maths
- H4 in Agricultural Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, or Phys/Chem

Where can I find more information

Caeersportal.ie

Qualifax.ie

Classroomguidance.ie

Eunicas.com

Ucas.com

Careersnews.ie

Ask your teachers

Ask your guidance counsellors

Ask friends and family